DALLAS, TX – APRIL 25, 2007 — Today cavalryHR, the Chicago-based interim staffing and project professional recruiting consultancy, announced that it has opened an office in the great state of Texas ... in Dallas/Fort Worth to be precise. The newest cavalryHR office will be staffed by an uniquely qualified team of recruitment and staffing specialists with a deep well of expertise in strategic human resource areas ranging from project, offshore and benefits outsourcing to hr consulting, back office support, interim executive and, of course, mobile workforce management.

The project consultants of cavalryHR offer a wide range of staffing and recruiting solutions that allow talent-centric businesses find and hire a top-notch workforce. The firm provides companies shopping for an offshore IT staff or an Interim CIO a comprehensive solution that can include services from executive and management searches to interim project recruiting, partial or complete outsourcing recruiting, benefits consulting or even mobile workforce outreach to bolster recruiting opportunities.

“For all of our service offerings, cavalryHR provides flexible and value based staffing solutions. That’s one reason so we’re thrilled to be taking cavalryHR’s model to the Dallas/Fort Worth marketplace,” said Keith S. Price cavalryHR’s President and Founder. “Helping corporations, large or small, recruit and retain the talented professionals they need ... whether that prospective workforce is currently job hunting from Taipei, Hyderabad, Guangzhou, Buenos Aires or right down there in Dallas ... in a cost-effective, innovative, way – that Texans are sure to appreciate.”

Further, because it’s situated within the economically vibrant “Telecom Corridor” the new cavalryHR office is positioned to provide the workforce management firm’s international operations with “Intel” and ground level insight into the Dallas Metro’s staffing and recruiting needs.

“By mixing enhanced local knowledge with our global presence, our new Dallas office will open a the door in and out of cavalryHR is really excited to be open in Texas. We expect to grow our outreach operation to over 40 employees by the end of 2007,” added Jack Williams, cavalryHR’s Director of Market Development. Williams will oversee the operation of cavalryHR’s Dallas office. “We’re already serving clients in Dallas and we expect demand will be strong for the brand of workforce management solutions we offer.”

He went on to say ...”It’s not every workforce management firm that’s ready to carry out an analysis that will demonstrate the link between a company’s human capital and competencies and the strategy they’d like to deliver with those competencies, plot which underserved competencies will be needed to achieve that long term plan or vision and finally go out find and recruit the talent necessary to achieve those corporate goals ... We really are a full service shop.”
